

COME AND GET 'EM, GIRLS!

They're hot. They're buff. And although they tout a "boy-next-door" demeanor, the seven beefcakes of AMERICAN STORM unleash their raw talents, driving women into a deafening screaming frenzy, in the Crazy Girls show-room at the Riviera every Wednesday through Monday. Now the winning hunks of VH1's hit reality series "StripSearch" have made themselves even more accessible with the release of their very own calendar. Adam Wynne, Ryan Westerburb, Josh Hall, Rick DeJesus, Sean Cassidy, and Terry and Tony Cress appear in perfect form as they reveal their sexy, hard bodies, as well as the charming, playful side of their personalities. The 16-month American Storm 2006 calendars can be picked up at the Riviera gift shop or via mail by sending a check or money order payable to SPI Entertainment, Inc. for $15.95 plus $7.95 shipping and handling to American Storm c/o SPI Entertainment, Inc., 1450 W. Horizon Ridge Parkway, Suite B-304, Box 663, Las Vegas, NV 89012. Now that we've got the details out of the way, ladies, it's time to get your giddy-up on. —Carla J. Zvosec

The total projected restaurant sales in Nevada for 2005, as predicted by the Nevada Restaurant Association. To serve so many meals requires an estimated 149,400 restaurant and food service employees, which represents 13 percent of the total employed in Nevada. That number, by the way, is expected to rise by a fairly phenomenal 24.5 percent in the next 10 years. Or, as every out-of-work actor would say, "Would you like fries with that?"

Where The Stars Shine

Elvis impersonators aren't the only tributes to catch in Las Vegas. The Entertainment Capital of the World is booming with stars. Here's the list of where you can see everyone from Britney Spears, to Dolly Parton, to Michael Jackson. —Katie Fitzgerald
